FARVADO STONE CEO

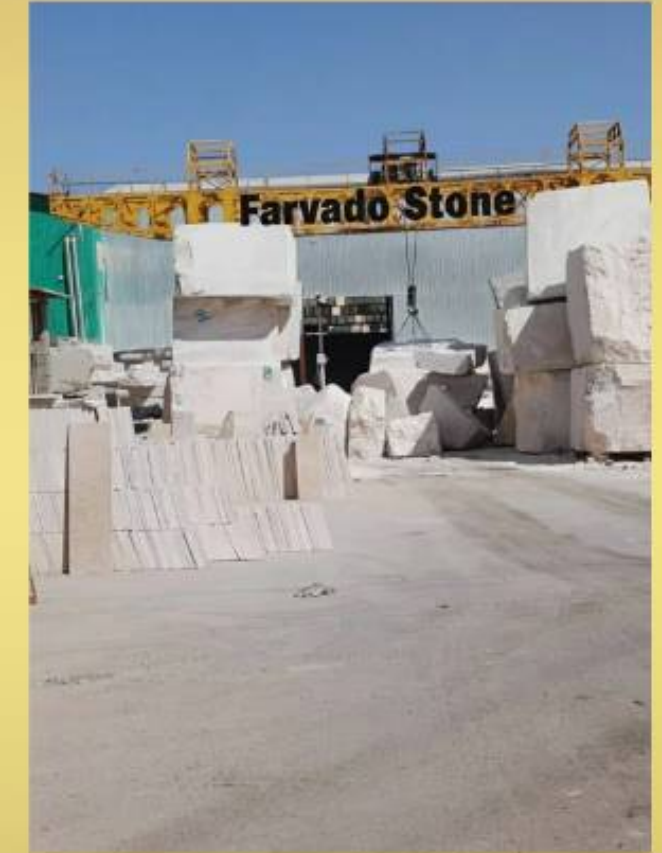

FARHAD DAVARI

I'm Farhad Davari, born in 1998 in Isfahan, Iran. My professional journey began in 2011, continuing the family tradition in the stone production industry. From an early age, I worked alongside my father in operating and developing our production line, gaining hands-on experience in selecting, cutting, and processing Marble, Travertine, and Onyx.

ABOUT FARVADO STONE GROUP

Having a 5000-depot of various types of stones including Travertine, Marble, Onix and so on, FARVADO STONE Company is able to be placed among top producers of decorative stones, and incessantly meet the needs of building and construction companies.
